

Insurance Investment Summit

30-31
MAY
2019

Mandarin Orchard Hotel,
Singapore

Theme: Maximising Investment Returns in Challenging Markets

After a decade of low interest rates and loose money supply, asset managers within Asia's insurance businesses now have become used to asset bubbles and bumpy equity markets that are being rattled by unpredictable oil prices and the continuing prospect of a US-China trade war.

And now it seems as if an extended Fed pause in rate rises could be a double-edged sword – especially with the uncertainty of what a disorderly Brexit could mean for many asset classes the world over.

The Asia Insurance Review investment summit will look at winning strategies and asset classes to make sure that the asset managers of the region's insurers have the tools to be prepared for whatever the unpredictable markets may throw at them.
