The premier agency event for heads of agency, distribution executives, sales managers and premier agents in Asia returns LIVE!

How do you go from good to great, to exceptional to unstoppable? What are the secrets of success of extraordinary agents? What strategies are leaders and winners using to get to pole position and break barriers in sales and customer service? How do you get ahead and stay ahead?

These are some questions that will be addressed at this year's Insurance Inspired! First time back as an in-person event after the last two years of the pandemic, the programme is designed to empower agents and agency leaders to be outstanding and unstoppable, especially in the new digital era. And we are bringing the crème de la crème of experts to help you strategize, learn and equip yourselves with the necessary tools to excel and succeed in today's extremely competitive world.

This year's event, presented by Asia Advisers Network, Asia Insurance Review and LIMRA, will once again bring together heads of agency, distribution executives, sales managers, and premier agents, with ample networking sessions to create new connections and benefit from key insights shared by thought leaders. After a two-year hiatus, the industry is thirsty to gather again and we look forward to putting together this platform to do just that.

To stay head of the competition, agents must continuously invest in education, to hone your skills. How can technology be a powerful tool for insurance agents, to streamline processes, improve efficiency, and provide better service to clients? What else are the star agents doing to their advantage? Insurance Inspired 2023 allows you to hobnob with the best of the best as mentors.

And in the spirit of shining stars, the evening of Day One crescendos to the 8th Annual Asia Trusted Life Agents & Advisers Awards 2023 – THE glitzy 'Oscars' like extravaganza where the chosen winners will be announced – the final revelation of who takes the various trophies!

We promise you two outstanding days of phenomenal speakers and powerful networking, culminating in the Awards Gala Dinner. Be where the stars shine bright!

Your ticket includes full access to both the 2-day conference as well as the Awards Gala Dinner on Day One. You become what you feed your mind, so sign up now to be amongst winners and leaders who will help you manifest and create your future success!

Get inspired! The time is NOW!
